ABOUT US

DialTex is a trailblazer in Sri Lanka’s apparel manufacturing industry. Since our founding in 1979, we’ve built a legacy of excellence, combining decades of experience with forward thinking innovation to deliver fully customized solutions from initial concept to final product launch.

Our state of the art facilities integrate the latest advancements in cutting, sewing, and finishing. We also operate our own fully equipped washing plant, enabling us to maintain complete control over quality and consistency throughout the production process.
